Give Me, O Lord

Words: James J. Rome and Susan Mack,
Music: Edward Dearle and Susan Mack, Arranged by Robert Rockabrand

Give me, O Lord, an understanding heart,
That I may learn to know myself in Thee,
To spurn the wrong and choose the better part
And thus from sinful bondage be set free.

I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord,
That he would grand me, according to his riches,
To be strengthened by his Spirit
In the inner man, The Kingdom within

Give me, O Lord, a meek and contrite heart,
That I may learn to quell all selfish pride,
Bowing before Thee, see Thee as Thou art
And 'neath Thy sheltering presence safely hide.

That Christ may dwell in my heart by faith;
That I be rooted and grounded in love.
That I comprehend with the saints
The breadth and length, the depth and height.

Give me, O Lord, a gentle, loving heart,
That I may learn to be more tender, kind,
And with Thy healing touch, each wound and smart
With Christly bands of Love and Truth to bind.

And may I know the love of Christ
Which passeth knowledge.
May I be filled with all the fullness,
The fullness of God.
Give me, O Lord, give me an understanding heart.

Mind Is The Grand Creator

Words: inspired by and featuring the writings of Mary Baker Eddy

Music: Désirée Goyette and Ed Bogas

"Mind is the grand creator" no power apart from Mind.
In every pure expression a vision of grace we find.
The morning bird's song, violet sunset, verdant hill,
Reflect the "color, form, expression" of Love's will.

Wisdom's illumination reveals beauty everywhere.
The symbols of Soul's creation lead us in a constant prayer
To the holy, sweet "unsearchable realm of Mind,"
Where in time our true identity we find.
Each day a new awakening to Love's plan.
We'll know the "glories of earth and heaven and of man."
