Prodigal Child

Words: Mindy Jostyn & Jacob Brackman

Music: Mindy Jostyn

I am a weary wanderer, I've traveled far and wide
In search of satisfactions I could not find inside
But everywhere I travel, I'm searching in the rain
And every city floods me with emptiness and pain

I left my homeland long ago with pockets full of gold
I squandered my inheritance, I slept out in the cold
Till in my darkest hour, I cried out in despair
Oh, lead me back to my childhood home
Back to my father's care

And if he will not have me, I'll go down on bended knee
And ask my generous father if a servant I could be
Though once I was his cherished one
I fear that in my shame
I am no longer privileged to bear our family name

My father sees me coming from far across the field
He runs to hold me in his arms before I reach his hill
I beg for his forgiveness, I don't deserve his grace
He cries, "I've found you, child of mine"
As tears stream down his face

I am a weary wanderer come home at last to stay
My restless soul has found its peace
My heart has found its way
I failed to win the world, but I've gained a greater prize
To know I am a worthy child in my gentle father's eyes

You Light the Way for Me

Words: inspired by the Bible and Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy
Music: Lola Kristine

Purify my heart
And make me anew through the spirit in you
Let only blessings flow from my lips
This fountain will have no bitterness

Restore the joy that you meant for me
As I freely receive I will freely give
Nothing can be lost
In your endless love I place my trust

I hear you calling out to me
"Rise up and walk
God made you free"
I am transformed
By your victory
You light the way for me

Purify my thoughts
I'll keep my focus set on you
Not conformed to the views of this world
My mind is renewed in your truth

I hear you calling out to me
"Rise up and walk
God made you free"
I am transformed
By your victory

I am not alone
You're standing strong with me
Forever and today
Through you are all things

Sickness has no power
Death it has no sting
In your perfect light
All will be set free

I am not alone
Forever and today
Through you are all things

Sickness has no power
Death it has no sting
All will be set free

I hear you calling out to me
"Rise up and walk
God made you free"
I am transformed
By your victory

I hear you calling out to me
"Rise up and walk
God made you free"
I am transformed
By your victory
